Press Release – March 30, 2005

NEVADA STATE BOARD OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS SUMMARILY SUSPENDS LICENSES OF TWO PHYSICIANS AT EMERGENCY MEETING

At an emergency Board meeting on March 24, 2005, the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners summarily suspended the medical license of Reno physician, Tarek R. Greiss, M.D.

A complaint was filed against Dr. Greiss, charging him with a violation of NRS 630.306(1), for being unable to practice medicine with reasonable skill and safety because of illness, a mental or physical condition, or the use of alcohol, drugs, narcotics or any other substance; a violation of NRS 630.306(10), for being habitually dependent on controlled substances and/or alcohol; and a violation of NRS 630.3065, for willfully failing to comply with the Board's condition of licensure, to-wit: that he participate in the diversion program, and that any continued medical practice during the pendency of time necessary for a hearing on the Complaint would endanger the health, safety and welfare of the public in the state of Nevada.
